

KLOV supplies us with good music and news that is a concern to the christian community. This community,if we loose our translator,will loose a valuable resourse. The translator is the only way we can hear this good wholesome programming. Please do not allow these to be replaced by an LPFM, which may provide programming that might be bad for the community.